

REGULATORY

- The division that ensures the quality of Philippine agricultural and fishery machineries, facilities and products to be within the domestic and international standards relative to client and consumer acceptability, health and safety, and the efficient trade of raw, fresh, primary and secondary processed agricultural and fisheries products (both food and non-food); activities undertaken include, but not limited to the following functions:
  - Formulation and enforcement of agriculture and fishery-related standards and regulations;
  - Prevention of disease and pest infestation;
  - Registration/accreditation of agricultural and fishery products and/or industry players; and,
  - Issuance of certifications, clearances, permits, licenses, and the like.